January, a fresh start. This year especially is a year of new. New sewing machines to learn and just one store to work in. I do miss my other stores, but this year is to get back on track and who know what or where next year will bring. In 2010 there will be some personal mile stones. Zak is getting married in August, Ed and I will celebrate our 30th wedding anniversary, Diesel will be 4 and yes there will be a party. Amy Baughman Sew and Quilt will be 20 years old. Wow where did the time go. The first full year of SewInformed.com I will be curious to see where all the members live.

I wish you a wonderful healthy and creative 2010

Amy
